VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Consider joining the ranks of our wonderful volunteers! Check off your choice below.

GET OUT THE VOTE

In order to encourage participation in the Library's annual budget and trustee vote, volunteers are needed in September to plant Get Out The Vote signs around Clifton Park and Halfmoon announcing the vote and to remove them after the vote

HOSPITALITY

This committee provides refreshments for Friends' and Library activities when requested. We welcome all who like to bake, help supply refreshments, or assist as host/hostess at programs. There is time for fellowship and working with members of Friends - no planning, organizing, or hard work involved.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

This committee promotes new and renewed Friends memberships, maintains membership records, and manages new member applications during Used Book Sales.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE

This committee donates books and magazines, pens, pencils, crayons, and drawing pencils to community groups and books to the military; makes and distributes bookmarks for seniors, youngsters and the New Baby program; delivers books for special programs, to seniors, and people who are homebound; and supports programs like dog therapy, the New Baby program, and Parents as Reading Partners.

PLANT SWAP AND SALE

Each year in the spring, we host a swapping opportunity for gardeners to exchange plants or gardening books and magazines. Many gardeners just bring plants for the Friends to sell, adding to the funds we use for activities and services for the Library community. We always need people to plan the event as well as for set up and clean up, plant experts, and cashiers.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We use social media like Facebook and Twitter to get the word out about the Friends and their activities. We need help from people who are willing to go to some of our activities, take photos, and post on Facebook or tweet about the event. We also want to explore the possibilities of other social media like LinkedIn and Pinterest.

TWO TOWNS-ONE BOOK

Become part of the Two Towns-One Book Committee to screen nominated books, plan events and publicity, and/or put on the many activities for children and adults associated with this community-wide read.

USED BOOK SALES

The Friends conduct three used book sales each year each fall, winter, and spring, as well as occasional themed minisales. All money raised supports Friends programs for the Library. Volunteers sort books, set up and take down sale areas, and sell books during sales.
